v.	:
	: Honorable Jennifer P. Wilson
HARRISBURG AREA COMMUNITY	:
COLLEGE	:
Defendant	:

SECOND AFFIDAVIT OF CAREN LARUE

1. I, Caren LaRue, declare, subject to penalty for perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that the following is true and correct:

2. I am currently employed by Harrisburg Area Community College ("HACC") as a professor of Nursing and the Director of the Nursing Program at the College's Gettysburg Campus.

3. Exhibit 1 to this Affidavit is a copy of students' grades in the theory portion of Nursing 206 during the fall semester. The students' names, other than O'Haro's, have been redacted.

4. Five total students originally failed the theory portion of Nursing 206 during the Fall 2014 semester: "R.W.," "L.F.," "E.P.," "M.B.M.," and "O'Haro."

5. M.B.M. is Latina.

6. R.W., L.F., and E.P. are all Caucasian.

7. L.F. failed Nursing 206's theory portion by six points. She did not lodge a grade appeal.

8. E.P. failed Nursing 206 by 12 points. She did not file a grade appeal.

9. R.W. originally failed Nursing 206 by three points. She filed a successful grade appeal, which resulted in her passing Nursing 206.

10. M.B.M. originally failed Nursing 206 by 5.5 points. She filed a successful grade appeal, which resulted in her passing Nursing 206.

11. Since I have been employed at HACC, no student has obtained more than 5.5 course points by filing a grade appeal.

12. The following statement appeared in the course syllabus for Nursing 250 during the Spring 2015 semester: "A NOT MET on any skill at the end of the course and on any learning outcome in the clinical performance evaluation toolkit will result in a 'D' grade for the course, regardless of the theory grade."

13. A "D" grade is a failing grade in HACC's Nursing program.

14. Thus, the language in the Nursing 250 syllabus doesn't mean a student automatically must receive a "D" grade if the student obtains a "Not Met" evaluation for any clinical criteria.

15. Instead, that language means that a student must obtain "Met" evaluations on all clinical evaluations. Students cannot make up for a "Not Met" evaluation by obtaining a sufficiently high grade in Nursing 250's theory component.

16. In other words, a student will receive a maximum grade of a "D"—which is a failing grade—if she has a "Not Met" clinical evaluation at the course's conclusion.

17. Students must pass Nursing 250 in order to graduate from HACC's associate degree in Nursing program.

18. O'Haro, therefore, could not have graduated from the program without passing Nursing 250, regardless of the grades she attained in other Nursing courses.

19. Once it became clear that O'Haro had not satisfied all clinical criteria in Nursing 250, she was relieved of the responsibility of sitting for the final exam in that course.

20. Additionally, O'Haro was removed from the Nursing program at that time, since O'Haro's failing grade in Nursing 250 marked the second failing grade she had received in the program.

21. As a result, O'Haro was removed from the other courses she had registered for that semester: Nursing 243 and Nursing 251.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAITH NOT.
